Imagine your child being diagnosed with a chronic condition. Suddenly, your life is changed forever. The emotional trials & tribulations of such a diagnosis not only have a profound effect on the child suffering the condition, ultimately they transform the entire family. In her new book, WHAT CAN I GIVE YOU?, author Mary Mahony takes you on a remarkable journey in which she chronicles the life of her own family as it confronts her daughter Erin's life with scoliosis. The journey is a story of pain, discovery, & doubt, & in the end, one of hope & resilience. I hope that you will share this remarkable story, seventeen years in the making, with your readers. WHAT CAN I GIVE YOU? is a real-life account of both a family & a health crisis, & how one effects the other. The book offers valuable guidance to families confronting & living with chronic conditions as well as to the doctors who treat them. It will serve as an inspiration not only to those with children suffering the day-to-day reality of adjusting to an altered life but for anyone interested in battling & overcoming adversity.
